Waryland Wazette.

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, August 29, 1888.

You are authorised to announce SPRIGG HARWOOD, EDjuire, as a Candidate for a seat in the next General Assembly.

We are authorised to announce WESLEY LINTHICUM as a Candidate to represent Anne-Arundel county in the next House of Delegates.

We are authorised to announce CHARLES D. WARFIELD as a Candidate to represent Anne Arundel county in the next House of Delegates of Maryland.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

A Convention of Delegates from the several Temperance Associations in Anne-Arundel countr, will be held in the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 20th of September next. The officers of the State Temperance Society and its Auxiliaries, the Rev. Clergy and the Physicians of the county generally, are re-spectfully invited to attend as Members of the Convention. Each society in the county is requested to appoint three or more special Delegates to represent them at this meeting. It is earnestly hoped that the friends of the Temperance Reformation, convinced of the important consequences that may result to the good cause in the promotion of which they are engaged, will spare no exertion to secure a full attendance in the Convention now called. Let every individual consider himself as under an obligation to promote by his personal efforts the object in view, and act according-

The Convention will meet in the Hall of the House of Delegates at 11 o'clock A. M. It is expected that on the evening of that day an address will be delivered.

The friends of Temperance in this and the adjoining counties and the public generally, are invited to attend the meeting of the Con-

The Bel-Air Citizen states that a rattlesnake, with eleven rattles, was killed last week at Deer Creek.

Antoine Le Blanc, whose trial has been going on for these few days past at Morristown, for the murder of Samuel Savre, wife and servant, was found Guilty on Wednesday evening. Immediately after sentence was pronounced, Le Blanc confessed his guilt.

BLACK HAWK AND HIS PARTY AT HOME.

The editors of the New York Daily Advertiser have been favoured with the following letter from an intelligent correspondent, dat-

FORT ARMSTRONG, (Upper Mississippi,) ? August 5th, 1833. The whole suite arrived here a few days since loaded with assumed dignity and costly presents. Keokuck's band speedily followed to welcome their brothers—a grand council assembed, among whom was myself, to witness the deliverance of the Hawk to his nation. The council opened with the address of the Presi-that he would not be advised by any body, that he wanted what he said to be told to the president, and that he in person would have said so in Washington, but that his interpresaid so in Washington, but that he is present the body washington and character, but the world so in Washington, but that he is present the world so in Washington, but that he is present the world so in Washington, but that he is present to the world so in Washington, but that he is present to the world so in washington and the world so in washington an said so in Washington, but that his interpretable could not sufficiently make known his place where the body was united; he says, to ter could not sufficiently make known his place where the body was united; he says, to ter could not sufficiently make known his place where the body was united; he says, to spatches for Don Pedro on the 19th, and comviews. The Colonel made to him a speech, would point it out, and that the bones may municated with the Transport off the Bax, stating that by his own treaty neither him or stating that him or stating that him or stating that him or stating that his own treaty neither him or stating that him or stating and that by that treaty, Keokuck was placed head of the Sac Nation, &c. Keokuck with head of the Sac Nation, &c. Keokuck with benevolent looks spoke awhile to the Hawk, then addressed the council, begged nothing might be remembered of what the Hawk said, that he was too old to say any thing good, and that he was answerable for his good behaviour; the poor old chief recalled his words, and I do not know that me was answerable for his good behaviour; the poor old chief recalled his words, and I do not know that me was answerable for his good behaviour; the poor old chief recalled his words, and I do not know that me was answerable for his good behaviour; the poor old chief recalled his words, and I do not know that me was answerable for his good behaviour; the poor old chief recalled his words, and I do not know the me was answerable for his good behaviour; the poor old chief recalled his words, and that previous this mysterious disappearance he carried a piece of cloth to a clothier in Glasterbury. and I do not know that my sympathies were ever more excited than in witnessing his ex ever more excited than in witnessing his expiring struggle for freedom—nothing but his advanced age and want of military power will prevent him from making another effort. Keokuck's band gave us a splendid dance; but fishing for seals among the floating ice in the the Hawk's party were either too dejected or too sullen to participate in the festivities.

You may tell the good citizens of New York, these Indians would willingly get up another war, in order to make another visit to the east, and return loaded with presents and almost satisted with attention.

From the New York Courier.

MR. YOUNG AND HIS HYMENEALS. Most of our readers probably saw the piece of scandal, to which the following refers, while going the rounds of our journals, but which we did not think proper for re-publication.

reation.

From the Providence City Gazette, of Monday evening.

Yesterday's Steambos' mail furnished us the following letter. We copy it for the benefit of the individual whose name is attached to it.

formed the marriage ceremony according to w the rights of the Catholic Church in St. Patrick's Cathedral on the 9th of same month. The former marriage was performed in the presence of Col. Cole of this city, and the latter in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Hilson. Mrs. Young (the late Mrs. Duff) did not leave this city until the 18th July. She then was accompanied by Mrs. Ewing of Philadelphia to the same latter and accompanied of the latter and the same latter and accompanied to the same month. and his lady for several weeks previous to the marriage, and up to the time of Mrs. Young's leparture, were on the most friendly foot-

So wanton an attack upon a gentleman 🧥 in the same breath you call your personal friend, and at the same time accuse of 'potent spells' and switchcraft, will not in itened country of laws go unpunished.

I am, sir, yours very respectfully.

JOSEPH J. PERSSON,

Counsellor at Law.

Having read the letter, we forwarded to it suthor the following reply:Sir,-By this day's steamboat mail, I re your letter of the 16th, and in reply to it have simply to remark, that if you have any further correspondence to make to me, you will please have the justice and decence to pay the postage. I shall write to Mi. Young in relation to the matter to which your letter refers. I am, &c. S. S. SOUTHWORTH, Counsellor at Law, No. 4, Market-st. Provi

To JOSEPH J. PERSSON. Counsellor at Law, No 151, Canal-st. N. Y.

As for the marriage of Mr. Charles Young to Mrs. Mary Duff, all we know about it has been derived from the newspapers of the day, and from other sources of intelligence. The facts on which the article which we published, were founded, were derived from Thomas A. Cooper, Esq. the celebrated tragedian, through the hands of Capt. Josiah Jones, and were faid before us by the latter gentleman.

CONFESSIONS OF MINER.

Rumours are in circulation in Hebron, that Anna Miner, the person under sentence of leath at Providence, has confessed his knowedge and agency in the perpetration of two nurders, one in that town, and the other inbody of a stranger who was peddling in Co on or near the well known John Tom Hill, in this inferior Kcokuck, the white man's friend.

The old chief rose in violent agitation, denied that the President had told him so, and was present at the time, but had nothing to rel.

On the return of the squadrom with their prisis to be re-committed on Monday, and proceed de die in diem until disposal of.

Sir John Wrottesley gave natice of a call was present at the time, but had nothing to rel. miles from this city. He further says he was present at the time, but had nothing to do with the affair—that the pedlar was murzette mentions that the present has been an

FOREIGN.

SIX DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE DEFEAT AND CAPTURE OF DON MI-GUEL'S FLEET.

The packet ship Europe, at New-York, prings London papers to the 15th, and Liverpool to the 16th July inclusive. They contain the intelligence confirmatory to the tain the intelligence confirmatory to the port received by the way of Gibraltar, of the destruction of Don Miguel's fleet by Atlantal Napler, the particulars of which will be found

It will also be seen that Pedro's cause on

The state of the individual whose name is attacted to it.

Naw York, Aug. 16, 1833, No. 151, Canal st.

Sourswork, Esq.—

Sourswork, Esq.—

Sourswork, Esq.—

Six—Charles found, accounted in the dispersion of the remainder, by hands, a copy of the paper published by you, which coststains a very base and malicious li Providence City coarcies, of Alon.

Accounted them, and their army now a throughout Russia is very great, and all sorts of protect the mounts to about 7000 men.

Accounted them, and their army now a throughout Russia is very great, and all sorts of protect the mounts to about 7000 men.

Falmouri, 13th July.

The Birmingham, steamer Captain Bear.

The Birmi

as it gives the constitutionalists the undisput-ed possession of the sea, and will enable them formed the marriage ceremony according to the rights and ceremonies of the Episcopal to attack, Lisbon by forcing the mouth of the Church, and the Rev. Dr. Levins. according Tagus, at the same time that Villa Flor spragus, at the same time that villa rior approaches it with his army from the south. It this army has really been increased to any thing like 10,000 men, by the defection of the troops sent to oppose it, the contest must by this time have been decided.

The vessel which brought this intelligence to Falmouth, met with Marshal Bourmont on then was accompanied by Mrs Ewing of Philadelphia to that city, having a daugnter Eliza) connected with that lady as a partner in a fancy store, in Fourth street. Mr. Young would just arrive in time to hear of its cap-It was lucky for him that he was not ture. on board.
IMPORTANT NEWS FROM PORTUGAL

CAPTURE OF DON MIGUEL'S FLEET BY REAR ADMIRAL NAPIER'S SQUADRON.

The Birmingham Steamer arrived here last and on the 4th came in sight of Don Miguel's portant transactious. He hoped the noble dest, confisting of nine ships, but there being some satisfactory explanation. It appared the steamers to tow his ships towards the ene- watched the conduct of Russia could doubt Friday the 5th instant, however, a breeze try however, could not tamely look on and see down on the enemy and commenced the ac-tion about three o'clock in the afternoon by plaining what had been the course of policy attacking the Da Rainha, mounting 74 gans which he carried in gallant style. The Dor John, alarmed at the capture of her consort all sail to escape a similar fate-Admiral Napier, having secured the Da Rainha immediately pursued the flying ship, and af-ter a long chase, during which the Don John kept up an incessant fire from her stern chasers, came up with the enemy, who at once struck his colours.

The Princess Real, 50 guns, was captured by the Donna Maria of 38 guns, after a short Columbia. The first is said to have been but smart engagement of twenty minutes, in committed twelve or fifteen years ago, on the which we regret to say Captain Gobler, comwhich we regret to say Captain Goblet, com-mander of the latter ship, was killed. A lumbia with a horse and wagon. He states store ship after a desperate conflict with the that the murder was committed at a coal pit, Don Pedro, likewise surrendered, as did two in a retired place in the west part of the town of the smaller ships. The remainder of the known by the name of Wells Woods. That enemy's fleet effected their escape. Thus terknown by the name of Wells Woods. That the coal pit was taken down and the bota put in and consumed with the pit. In this transaction he says he was assisted by two men of bad character, then living in Hebron. It is said that a pedlar of that description was trained an action which proved the destruction of Don Miguel's naval force, and which, in its results is of the uturnet importance to bad character, then living in Hebron. It is said that a pedlar of that description was trained in the refers to, and that he suddenly disappeared under circumstances to excite suspicion that he had heen murdered.

In the House of Commons hearly at the early sitting and considerable part of the late, was occupied with the details in committee of the East India Company's Charter Bill; the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an amendment of Mr. Hume, to the effect that instead of twenty' years, as proposed to be the flag-lieutenant to Rear Admiral Napier, and several other officers, also a considerable number of the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an amendment of Mr. Hume, to the effect that instead of twenty' years, as proposed to be the period of the renewal it should be then," or the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an amendment of Mr. Hume, to the effect that instead of twenty' years, as proposed to be the period of the renewal it should be then," or the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an amendment of Mr. Hume, to the effect that instead of twenty' years, as proposed to be the period of the renewal it should be then," or the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an amendment of Mr. Hume, to the effect that instead of the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an amendment of Mr. Hume, to the effect that instead of the committee proceeded as far as the 40th clause, with only one division, on an a been murdered.

The other he savs was committed on a trunk pellar, about six or eight years since, on or near the well known John Tom Hill, in On the return of the squarrom with their pri-

The following additional particulars have been brought by private letters:

"FILMOUTH, 13th July, 1833. Laffan, Homan Catholic arch-bishop of Cashel, tandbroker of Sir Covery De Laffan, Baronet.

RUSSIA.

Bussian and Brussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the utter tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduce to the uttert tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction to the uttert tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction to the uttert tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction to the uttert tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction the united tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction to the united tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction to the united tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction to the united tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian conduction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian tinction of Turkey in a very short period time.

Bussian and Frussian Conduction of the cond time.

Bussian and Frussian condu cers and mea were killed on each side. The Marquis Paimella and Count Villa Flor were proceeding rapidly towards Lisbon. It is stated by the master of the steamer that 3000 men had joined them, and their army now abel, and concurrently with this letter an action is instituted against you.

Mr. Young requestion to state, that every allegation contained in the arrived and the army of the usurper has been most ladd to is false, except the fact of the marriage.

The parties were engaged to each other several days previous to the marriage, which took place on the 5th July. The Rev. Dr. Bayard Rector of St. Clements Church, performed the marriage ceremony according to ed Captain George of the Pedro, Admiral'a flag-shipt Captain Goblet of the Donna Maflag ship; Captain Goblet of the Donna Ma-ria; Lieutenant Miller. marines; the master of the Rainha da Portogal, and Lieutenant Woedbrige, Flag Lieutenant severely wound-ed, since dead. Wunnded-Captain Napier, Jr., Captain Reeves, Lieutenaut Edmonds, and Capt. Vancello, of marines, all severely, The loss on the part of the Miguelites was very great.
The Tagus is blockaded. The number of troops which had declared for the Queen

Algarve is from 6000 to 7000 men, and makes the force now under Compte Villa Fler about BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS. The Bill for renewing the East India Company's Charter, was read a second time or the 10th of July .- On the following day the House went into committee upon the Bill, and progress was made in the details

The Birmingham Steamer arrived here last night, from which Senhor Mendizable landed with despatches from Portugal, with which he immediately depirted for London. The birrier of the despatches observed the atricient secreey as to the character of his new. The secreey as to the character of his new. The despatches, which we have much pleasure in the second of the ommunicating to our reach.

It appears that Rear-Adminst Napier, with his squadron, consisting of three frigates—the Rainha da Portagul (flag.) Don Pedro, and Donna Maria to covette, a brig and a schooner, sayed from Lagos on the 2d instance, sayed from Lagos on the 2d instance, sayed from lagos on the 2d instance of Russia in the affairs of Turkey, and expressed his astonishment that England appeared to have taken no share in these importance of the same in sight of Don Mignel's portage transactions. He hoped the noble that the object which she aimed at was to resteamers was secured to the owners. On duce Turkey under her dominion. This counsprung up, when Rear Admiral Napier bore her carry that object into effect. In order to down on the enemy and commenced the acpursued by England, he would move that an address be presented to his Majesty, praying him to lay before the House copies of papers respecting the measures pursued by Russia in er interference with the state of Turkey.

Lord Palmerston replied that compliance with the motion would be productive of great inconvenience, that there was proceeding a orrespondence on the subject, that he doubted not Russia would keep faith on this sub ject; and that he believed at the time he was menking, the Russians were withdrawing. sked that confidence might be repos ed in the Government on this subject for a ve-

After some conversation, Mr. Bulwer, in withdrew his motion.

In the House of Commons nearly all the parliament deem it advisable.

Sir John Wrottesley gave netice of a call plation, as it is understood, of the vote of the House of Lords on the second reading of the Irish Church Bill, which it now fixed for Wednesdat.

WEST INDIES AFFAIRS.

place where the body was uniced he says, if he was brought to Hebron, under keepers, would point it out, and that the bones may still be found. It is also said in Hebron, that a pellar of that description was missing a bout the time he states, and that previous to his mysterious disappearance he carried a piece of cloth to a clothier in Glasterbury, which has not been called for.

A letter published in the New-York Gazette mentions that the present has been an extent of the capture of the fleets.

A letter published in the New-York Gazette mentions that the present has been an extent of the capture of the fleets.

The Birmingham called off Opprto with despite on the 19th, and communicated with the Transport off the Baz. At an adjourned meeting of West India. At an adjourned meeting of West India.

At an adjourned meeting of West India. At an adjourned meeting of W Islands, and other gentlemen, should be ap-pointed to examine into the details of the bill, and report lereafter upon it.

and brother of Sir Covery De Lassan, Baronet.
RUSSIA.

Despitches from St. Petersburg, as also the St. Petersburg Gazette, received in London on the 14th of July, mention a plot against the sie of the Emperor of Russia, on the part of some Polish exiles, who left Paris a short time ago, and bound themselves by an oath to effect his assassination. It was first made public by a journal which gave an account of the reception of a deputation which waited upon the Emperor in Finland to congratuate him on the frustration of the conspiracy. It seems that the Russian authorities did not wish the matter made public, but on this account appearing, deemed it right to allode to it in the Gazette. The sensation erreated throughout Russia is very great, and all sortes of precautions are employed to protect the whill, It land, between a party of Orange of Precautions are employed to protect the wish the Russian authorities did not of 49.

wish the matter made public, but on this account appearing, deemed it right to allude to it in the Gazette. The sensation created throughout Russia is very great, and all sorts of precautions are employed to protect the Emperor in his various visits to the frontier towers.

TURKEY.

The Thellusson Estate bill was ordered a third reading in the House of Lords of 22nd, by a vote of 87 to 20.

A conflict took place on the 12th at Conflict took place on the 12t

he forbears to say a word in the the independence of the new this proposal may be discrimed fresh erop of protocola.

The Neapolitan and Sardinian gov ave communicated to the court of River their protest against the alteration made in the Spanish government in the law for re-lating the succession to the Ciown of Span

LATE PROSE ENGLAND

The packet ship George Washington New York, brings London papers id the 14 and Liverpool to the 25th July, inclusive. and Liverpool to the zone vary, increase,

The accounts from Postngal cootine in voorable to Don Pedro, who has declared the ports of Don Miguel to Be under blocked.

Two mare of Miguel's ressels, a correction a brig, have gone over to the enemy. Detail of the latest intelligence will be found below.

of the latest intelligence will us found below.

The English ministry are still in their places. The Irish church temporalities bill the House of Lords, passed on the night Friday, July 19th, to a second reading, bill Friday, July 19th, to a second reading by majority of 59, with reserve of a full day sion on the subject of its details in Committee in the course of the last day, the Biskey London avowed himself in favour of a chapter of the course of the last day. reform in England to a limited extent. supported the second reading of the bill the ground that the circumstances of Irish church required legislative interferent but objected to the several details of the measure. The Earl of Winchelsea inquire whether the Bishops had received a commun cation from the King calculated to influence cation from the King calculated to influent their votes on the Irish Church Reform Bit to which the Bishop of London gave as 6 rect answer. The bill was opposed by it Earl of Eldon and the Archbishop of Cale. bury as destructive to the Protestant change establishment in Ireland. The Archbinia of Dublin supported the general principles the bill. The Duke of Wellington condemant emporizing measure of the Government had been the means of placing fi had rendered some measure of Chara He should vote for the second reading of de bill; but he alluded to many of its essential provisions as being highly objectionable, and which he should oppose when the bill reatisto committee. Viscount Melborne and the Lord Chancel.

lor defended the measure as calculated to strengthen the interests of the Protestant Church Establishment in Ireland, whilst the contended that there was not the less four dation for the charge of its being a means f spoliation.
The second reading of the bill was in supported by the Bishop of Bath and Welk the Bishop of Hereford, Lord Geham, if the Earl of Harrowby, who, however, a pressed themselves dissatified with serial of its provisions. The Earl of Longlet the Duke of Newcastle, the Duke of Camer land, and Lord Wynford opposed the securing of the bill as they conceived iteals lated to overthrow the Protestant Church.

concurrence in the principle of the hill.

Earl Grey replied at considerable length ie arguments against the bill.

The house then divided, when the great umbers were, including proxics-For the second reading

Against it Majority for the second reading 59
The bill was then ordered to be committed n Monday following.

As for the prospect of a war in Europe, i

House of Commons, that it is the manifest ne tual security and d fence. It must also ler to two other important results; viz: the " "Filmourin, 13th July, 1833. and report fereafter upon it. cession of the United States of America Presuming it may be interesting to you. Dublin papers announce the death of Dr. this Austrian, Russian and Prussian confect beg to inform you that the Birmingham Laffan, Foman Catholic arch-bishop of Cashel, racy,—and must also conduce to the utter

There is nothing important from Prince.
The state of the country was generally que.
German papera received to the 13th incontain an article dated Constantinople, in crit. A convention of control of convention of a pigestive, and institute foreign attack or later as drawn up by the S. CHOLERA AGAIN The Morning Heralid or to Amit that there the control of the convention of the control of the con

PORTUC Lospos, Inter 94 (ev ellugence from Opporto No attack bad bee it is expected that he have he interest of the next ed attack on the ti the South the last a Palmella at Largos on te fast he was occupie ministrative organizat Algarve. The whole the of Portugal is repr mily inclined to the uonal troops have n chis their next point stelligence of the hi to and from the Sou expected within the nonex, July 24. - 1t eceived Oporto pape rs from our corresp attack hal been atte Miguelite force. Don Pedro has given e of Viscount of Cap intel him Admiral Portugal. DIICES OF THE E

After the glorious oc

e between the 24th

thathe Dake of Terc

to, learnt that the fee sed chiefly of volunte command of the Ba precipitate flight in th He thereupon gave of de to march in pursu nad to Loule and h dnight at the head of direct route upon disperse the enemy t that the garrison og abandoned the the road to St. Ba this tems, uniti ck as possible, with r occupying the at that our troops were doned their field pie ·As in consequence of brigades had left m unition in the rear, to arrival from Fare an erening of the sam ment of Cacadores of St. Marcos, when pitately retired.

At this time Colon mmanding a party of lanteers of Villa R lres of the town of rossed the Mertola, w ial information of the erpa and Moura, and ously awaited the a 'The rebel forces co Sado or that of Beja lecided to march upon ectly into the centre of enally declared on In m, and the town of C a deputation to the On the 7th instant noderar, he was ma ions victory gained Vibcent ore ch is now in our por This news retards

a take charge of more the captured squadi to captured squadr tom, shortly after, its the service of the table the Duke to fre and in the Alemtejo, to 8th, having alread estitutional corps

The Doko de Palmi a the 8th announcing such added the fudicial mization of the whole to Queen and, the correspond the province magnificant place the government is no Mational battallons out considerable cities the secretary form the macives to the sich engrassed with the secretary secretary sections.